

TERMINATOR 3

TOMÁS MAC AN TASOÍ

Interview with Tomás Mcentee, Sec-Gen

By Daniel Orr

Daniel: What do you like about TERMUN so far?

Tomas: How all delegates have gotten involved, especially new delegates who have never spoken before have made speeches.

Daniel: What is your favourite committee as the Sec-General?

Tomas: They're all my favourite.

Daniel: How did you get into MUN?

Tomas: My Spanish teacher recommended it to me when I was in second year.

Daniel: What advice do you have for new delegates?

Tomas: Never forget, MUN is a team sport. The way to do well is to make friends with collaborative people.

Interview 1

By Naitik Tanwar and Liam Finucane

Naitik: On a scale of 1-10, how confident are you about your speech?

Spain Delegate: 10, it's the best speech ever.

Naitik: If you had to rate your country's chance of passing a resolution, what would it be?

Spain Delegate: A solid 10, this is the best res I've ever seen by Spain.

Naitik: On a scale of 1 to 10, how intense was your last debate?

Spain Delegate: A solid 6 or 7 to be honest.

Naitik: How many times has Paul Higgins crashed out?

Spain Delegate: Not once yet.

Naitik: What would you rate TERMUN?

Spain Delegate: 10/10.

Naitik: How many hours did you sleep last night?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: Like 6, 6 for the whole night, 6,7.

Naitik: How many cups of coffee did you have today?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: 1, but getting to my second one now.

Naitik: On a scale of 1-10, how intense was your last debate?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: Ooh, it's quite 6, 6, 7, like in quality.

Naitik: on a scale of 1-10, how diplomatic do you feel right now?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: Very diplomatic, like very diplomatic, like very 6,7, you know what I mean?

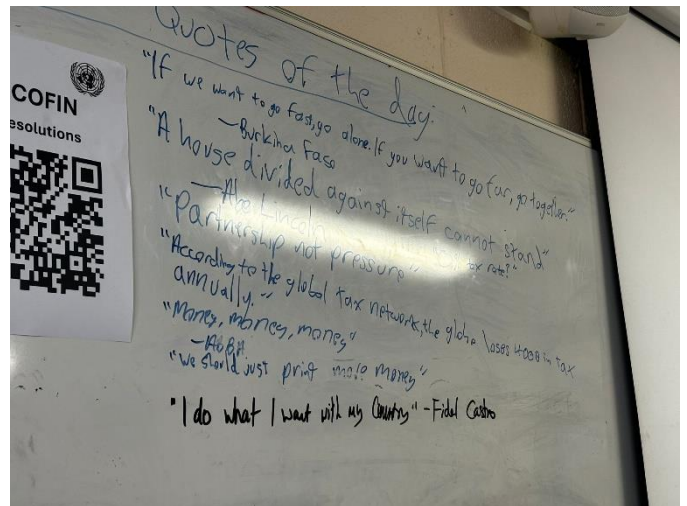

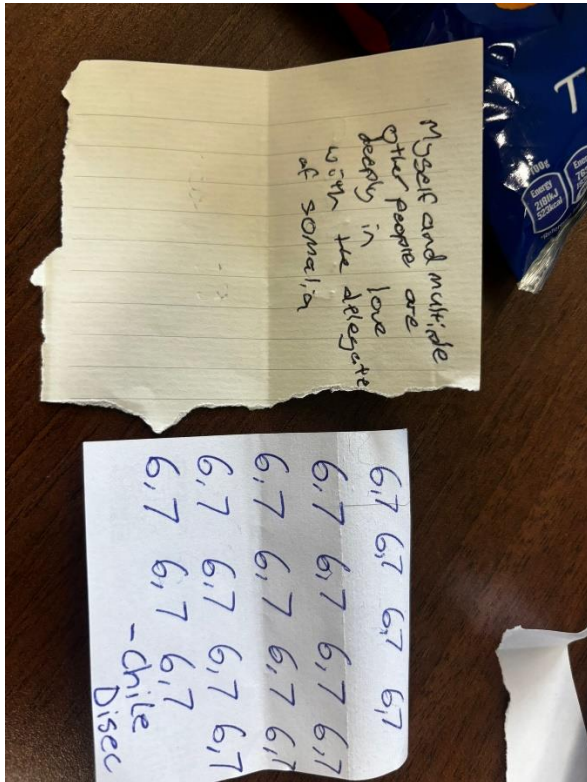

Naitik: As diplomatic as Paul Higgins?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: Yeah, obviously, we're close buddies, we're homies,

Naitik: On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate TERMUN so far?

Ryan, SPECPOL Co-chair: Honestly 6,7 but it's getting to the 10 mark.
